NOTICE

New Foreign Affairs Officer – Britt Jones

The Office of Foreign Missions is pleased to announce the appointment of Britt Jones as a new Foreign Affairs Officer in its Office of Policy and Reciprocity (OFM/PR). He joins OFM after years in the Foreign Service, having served in overseas postings in China and Mexico, as well as domestically in the Bureau of Consular Affairs.

In this new role, Mr. Jones is primarily responsible for formulating and ensuring the proper implementation of a wide array of policies and programs associated with the regulation of the operation of foreign missions in the United States. Among other subjects/issues, OFM/PR is responsible for managing and overseeing the implementation of the following programs:

- the Bonded Warehouse Program;
- the Foreign Mission Member Accreditation Program;
- the Foreign Mission Banking Program;
- the Dependent Work Authorization Program;
- the Diplomatic Motor Vehicle Program;
- the Foreign Missions Importation Program; and
- the Foreign Mission Tax Exemption Program.

Mr. Jones' office is located at 2201 C Street, NW Room 2510-C, Washington, DC. He can be reached by electronic mail at OFM-Policy@state.gov.

Questions concerning this or other matters may be directed to OFM by telephone at (202) 647-3417 or by electronic mail at OFM-Info@state.gov.
